part 1:

discussion

1. Is there a time when you had a desire for a relationship to move to a deeper level, but the other person just didn't seem to want to go there? With a parent, sibling, friend...
2. Do you have a checklist for each of your relationships? Why or why not?
3. Do you ever feel like you treat your relationship with God or Christianity like a checklist? How so?
4. Revelations 3:15 says "I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other!" What does this verse communicate to us about what kind of relationship God wants with us?
5. Charles said that intimacy is gained through TIME, TRANSPARENCY, and SUBMISSION
Which one of these are you doing the most?
Which one of these are you doing the least?
6. What does relational growth with God look like?
7. What is one way that your relationship with God has grown in the past few months? They can be things like saying "no" to temptation, journaling or praying regularly, etc.
